TRUSTEES' MEETING

ATTORNEY ADVISES TRUSTEES AS TO REQUIREMENTS FOR CITY CHARTER ELECTION

The Board of Trustees met in regular session at the City Hall at 7:35 p. m. May 16, 1918. All members present at roll call.

The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved.

A petition was presented signed by about fifty-six of the residents of Orange Grove avenue protesting against the change of the name of that street. On motion of Trustee Shaw, action in regard to the same was deferred until the next regular meeting.

Demands were presented and, on motion, referred to the Finance Committee.

On motion of Trustee Shaw, the matter of a partially burned house on Columbus avenue near Park avenue was referred to the Building Inspector with instructions to abate the nuisance as soon as possible.

A communication was read from the City Attorney in reference to the request of the Board that he advise it as to any legal authority for the maintenance of a public playground, to the effect that in his opinion the trustees have authority to expend a reasonable and proper sum of money for the maintenance of such playground. On motion of Trustee Shaw, referred to the Committee of the Whole.

A communication was presented from the City Attorney advising the trustees as to the legal requirements in the matter of proceedings for the calling of an election and subsequently for the adoption of a charter for the city. The letter was accompanied by an ordinance which the City Attorney had prepared calling an election of the Board of Freeholders. The letter follows:

May 15, 1918.

Hon. Board of Trustees,
City of Glendale, California.
Gentlemen:

You requested me to advise you the necessary steps to bring about an election of a Board of Freeholders for the purpose of drafting and submitting to the people of the City of Glendale a charter.

Section 8, of Article 11, of the Constitution provides that in a city with a population of Thirty-five Hundred, as shown by the last preceding census taken under the authority of the United States, or the Legislature of the State of California, may frame a charter for its own government. This Section provides for the calling of an election to which fifteen freeholders are to be elected for the purpose of framing the charter. The Board of Freeholders must within One Hundred and Twenty (120) days after their election present and propose a charter for the government of such city. This period of One Hundred and Twenty (120) days may be extended by the Board of Trustees of the City for an additional period of Sixty (60) days. The proposed charter must be signed by a majority of the Board of Freeholders and filed in the office of the Clerk of the City. The Board of Trustees must within fifteen (15) days after the filing of the charter cause same to be published once in the official paper of the city, and copies to be printed in pamphlet form, with a notice published in a paper of general circulation that such copies may be had upon application therefor. The charter must be submitted to the electors of the city at an election fixed by the Board of Freeholders before the same is filed in the office of the City Clerk. This election must be held not less than Sixty (60) days from the completion of the publication of the charter as above set forth. If a majority of the qualified voters vote in favor of such proposed charter, it is thereby deemed to be ratified and shall then be submitted to the next Legislature of the State. If the Legislature approves the charter, it thereupon becomes the organic law of the city. One copy of the charter so ratified shall be filed with the Secretary of State and one with the Recorder of the County in which the City is located, and one in the archives of the city.

I submit herewith an ordinance calling election of the Board of Freeholders, which if adopted must be by at least a two-thirds vote of your body.

All of which is most respectfully submitted,

W. E. EVANS,
City Attorney of the City of Glendale.

On motion, Ordinance No. ....., "An Ordinance of the City of Glendale calling a special election of the qualified electors of said city, for the purpose of electing a Board of fifteen freeholders to prepare and propose a charter for said city," was taken up for first reading.

On motion, this ordinance was declared read for the first time and was taken up for second reading.

On motion, this ordinance was declared read for the second time and was laid over for one week for the third and final reading.

The City Attorney reported that the case of Daisy Mason vs. the trustees of the former City of Tropico had been concluded by a decision in favor of the defendants.

Trustee Jackson made a report for the Public Welfare Department in regard to the dog pound, and on motion of Trustee Muhleman it was ordered that the matter be left in the hands of the Committee to further investigate and make a recommendation to the Board.

On motion of Trustee Muhleman, it was ordered that when the Board adjourn, it be to meet at 8:30 a. m. Thursday, May 28th, next.

Demands were reported back approved and warrants ordered to be issued in payment of the same.

The Board adjourned at 9:10 p. m.

HOME WEDDING

MISS EULALIA RICHARDSON THE BRIDE OF SHIVES MITCHELL

More than a hundred of the relatives and older friends of the family of Mrs. Ella W. Richardson assembled at her home, 805 S. Central avenue, Thursday evening, May 16, in response to invitations to witness the marriage of her only daughter, Miss Eulalia Richardson, to Shives Mitchell.

Pink roses were used in profusion, banking the fireplace, disposed on the mantel and twined from the chandeliers in the room where the ceremony was performed. Adjoining rooms were decorated in the same color scheme, roses, gladioli and other blossoms from the Richardson gardens being employed. White roses and white lilies adorned the den where the exquisite gifts bestowed upon the bride were displayed.

At eight o'clock, the time set for the ceremony, Mrs. Clement D. Hellyer sang very sweetly and feelingly, "Love Never Faileth." Immediately after, Mrs. K. T. Romie of Salinas, a former college mate of the bride at Stanford, played the wedding march as the bridal party appeared and took their places before the officiating clergyman, Rev. C. R. Norton, who has known the bride since her babyhood days.

The flower girl, little Miss Betsy Butterfield, cousin of the bride, led the party, sweet and dainty in white with her basket of roses. She was followed by the maid of honor, Miss Lorraine Mitchell, charming in a gown of pink organdie, carrying a shower bouquet of Cecil Bruner buds. Little Miss Rose John, cousin of the bride, proudly bore the ring on a white satin pillow. The bride on the arm of her brother, Omar Burt Richardson, followed the ring bearer and met the groom and his best man, E. William Richardson, before the clergyman, who spoke briefly of the sacredness of the marriage relation before reading the service which united the lives of the young people. The bride was beautifully gowned in white embroidered pina cloth over white satin. The gown was given to her when she was on a trip around the world by her cousin, Capt. James McCloud, then stationed in the Philippines, now a Major in the English army. She carried a wonderful shower of lilies of the valley and white rosebuds.

The military touch was given the affair by the presence of the bride's two brothers, Omar Burt Richardson in the uniform of the naval aviation service and E. Will Richardson wearing the olive drab of the Military Police.

Following the ceremony the guests were invited upstairs, where the wedding repast was served. Here the color scheme was white and gold, the walls being banked and completely hidden by palm branches, other greenery and the fragrant golden blossoms of the Scotch broom. Bouquets of white and gold daisies were used here while the small tables where the guests were served each was centered by a vase of rosebuds in the prevailing colors, while at each cover was a French boutonniere and a tiny silk flag.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell left Thursday evening to spend their honeymoon days at beautiful, historic Monterey. For the present their home will be at King City, where the groom is engaged in war work.

Medical officers numbering 1,675 are members of the Medical Department of the Navy. The Navy maintains 12,000 hospital beds and 5,000 are being added.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—Allied naval officials here predict a gigantic allied offensive with the entente, American and possibly the Japanese fleets participating. They declare the recent raids on the Belgian coast and in the Adriatic are forerunners of British and American action against the Germans in the North Sea and French and Italian anti-Austrian operations in the Adriatic.

IRISH OPPOSE CONSCRIPTION

PARLIAMENTARY PARTY APPEALS TO U. S. TO INFLUENCE ENGLAND TO APPLY SELF DETERMINATION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

DUBLIN, May 17.—The Irish Parliamentary party has passed a resolution against conscription and making an appeal to America to urge England to apply to Ireland the self-determination principle. The resolution charges that Great Britain is circulating propaganda in America to "blacken Ireland," and does not intend to establish Home Rule, promising it merely to deceive the British and American people.

ARTILLERY ACTIVITY INCREASING IN FLANDERS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, May 17.—Gneral Haig reported that both allied and German artillery is developing greater activity in Flanders, in the Pacaut wood sector, north of Hinges and between Nieppe forest and Metron. A hostile raid south of Arras was repelled. The German official statement claims that "large allied forces were repelled near Catelle."

GREEN STOCKINGS

SPARKLING COMEDY IS WELL PLAYED BY SENIORS OF GLENDALE UNION HIGH

In spite of the fact that there were other affairs to compete for the patronage of amusement seekers, an excellent audience filled the High School auditorium and greatly enjoyed the class play, "Green Stockings," put on Thursday evening.

It was a sparkling little comedy, the more effective because simple in construction and with a sustained interest which held the audience from start to finish. The absorbed attention of spectators was quite as flattering as the bursts of applause which greeted clever hits.

It was an English drawing-room play with but one set, which was of course an advantage, and it was helped not a little by the very excellent stage setting which was entirely suitable and consistent, the walls draped with heavy hangings in lieu of tapestry, the furniture and accessories what they should be. The make-up and English mannerisms were also very good, and for these things, which contribute so much to the making of a play, much credit is due the coach, Miss Abbie C. Terry, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ralston, who directed the make-up, the Diando Film Co., who loaned properties, and the property managers, Milton Kranz, Emerson Padelford, Margaret Gregg, Louise Gonzales.

Norma Lorbeer who, as Celia, was leading lady, was charming and quite professional in the role, in which she showed real talent. Jessie Sheppard was more than good as "Aunt Ida." Walter Beach was capital as Robert Tarver, the boring young politician. The ingenuous young sister "Phyllis" could hardly have been portrayed better than Jane Snyder did it. Berna Martin did some excellent comedy work as Admiral Grice, and Milton Brown in the hero's part of Colonel Smith was handsome and quite of the matinee idol type. Cecil Percy's impersonation of the irresponsible father, "William Faraday," was very good; so were Anabel McClellan and Elizabeth Allen as the heroine's sisters, "Madge" and "Evelyn"; and Merle Davis as "Martin, the butler." It was clean, bright and well played and will probably draw a bigger audience tonight.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Dora L. Gibson the High School orchestra furnished a varied musical program which began with the "Star-Spangled Banner" and which delightfully entertained the audience before the curtain rose on the first of the three acts and during the intermissions.

FLAGS TO THE FORE

Mrs. A. L. Bancroft of 121 West Laurel street, this city, who is a professional decorator and who is in the employ of the Chamber of Commerce of Los Angeles, has taken in hand the decoration of the Municipal Playground on San Fernando road in the Tropico District, where the big Red Cross Carnival is to be held Saturday afternoon and evening. More than 200 flags have been loaned to her for the event, and also a quantity of umbrellas in the colors of the Allies, which will be used at the various booths. A tent has been secured for the vaudeville show, and besides the band concert and the dancing there will be speeches by distinguished orators, including a Japanese who will talk to his countrymen in their own language about the Red Cross. Last year the Carnival cleared $250, and the managers hope to make even more this year for the Red Cross.

MRS. McBRIDE RETURNS

Mrs. N. W. McBryde of 1206½ West Broadway has returned from a most delightful visit of two months among friends and relatives in Atlanta and other points in Georgia. Mrs. McBryde, it will be remembered, accompanied her mother, Mrs. F. J. Fambrough, when she went home after spending fifteen months visiting her daughter and son and other relatives in Glendale and Los Angeles. Mrs. Fambrough passed her eightieth birthday just previous to her return home.

GOES TO SAN FRANCISCO

Mrs. George Anderson of Chicago, who has been spending the winter in Southern California, who had several times been the guest of Mrs. C. D. Willard and of Mrs. William Harvey, Jr., of this city, left yesterday for San Francisco and Seattle in the expectation of going east via the Canadian Pacific. A farewell dinner to relatives and intimate friends was given Wednesday evening in her honor by her sister, Mrs. Williams of Hollywood, at which Mr. and Mrs. Harvey were guests.

LIEUT. HAWKINS HOME

HOME ON FURLOUGH AFTER FINISHING COURSE AT PRINCETON UNIVERSITY

Walter Hawkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hawkins of 742 West Eighth street, arrived in Glendale Wednesday evening to spend a thirty-day furlough at his home here. Walter has just finished a course in the School of Military Aeronautics of Princeton University, where he won a commission as Second Lieutenant. He will receive his commission after a month at some flying school.

Walter has been in the service for more than a year. He had scarcely finished his high school course with the class of 1917 when he enlisted. He was one of the pioneers at Kelly Field. The 23rd Aero squadron to which he belonged raised the first tent there. He advanced rapidly and was made first sergeant while at Kelly Field, later going to Mineola Aviation Field, Long Island. His course at Princeton covered a period of two and a half strenuous months. He must report back to Princeton June 1 and after a month at a flying school will have earned his commission.

PACIFIC UNION CONFERENCE NOTES

Elder Andross, who is now en route for his new field in Washington, is visiting his sons at St. Helena and Portland on the way.

Mr. Christian, the new president of the Pacific Union Conference, who succeeds Elder Andross, has not yet arrived.

Miss Winifred Sturgis has come from Arizona to take the place of Mrs. Beddoe as stenographer in the office of the Pacific Union Conference. Mr. and Mrs. Beddoe will soon leave for Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Frank A. Coffin is nearly recuperated from her recent illness, but is not yet out of quarantine. Mr. Coffin is permitted to go and come to his business as corresponding secretary of the Pacific Union Conference.

NO SOLDIERS' FESTIVAL

Captain Crump, officer in charge of the soldiers from Fort MacArthur who have been practicing this week on the government rifle range in Shole's Canyon, northeast of Glendale, received orders this morning to bring the men back to San Pedro. This is a disappointment to a group of patriotic ladies who had arranged for a social festival for the boys tonight, which was to include a street dance on Broadway between Brand and Central avenue and refreshments at the Red Cross Shop. It will also be a disappointment to the soldiers, who will leave about noon today. Better luck next time.

HONOR FOR THROOP

The Throop College baseball team, of which Eugene Imler is the captain and Horace Lukens the star pitcher, won the championship of Southern California at the game played in Redlands last Saturday. This honor that comes to Throop is reflected on Glendale since both the boys mentioned are Glendale boys.

F. H. VESPER RECEIVES NOTICE OF HONOR FROM FEDERAL RESERVE DISTRICT

F. H. Vesper, Chairman of the Liberty Loan Campaign Committee, has received notice from the Federal Reserve District that Glendale has been given the Blue Star to be added to its honor flag as testimony that it more than doubled its quota. The star will be sewed upon the flag which will be permanently installed in the headquarters of the Glendale Red Cross Chapter in a place of honor.

Glendale has not done much shouting nor been greatly featured in the general publicity given to cities of California which exceeded their quota, but when work is assigned her she puts men in the field who are capable of conducting a campaign in a thorough, systematic manner, her citizens are patriotic and responsive, and she gets there with the results. The efficiency of her leaders, Chairman Vesper and Vice-Chairman Lawshe, the good work done by Mrs. Bellew and others who contributed clerical service, the splendid team work of district and committee chairmen and members who gave every citizen a chance to subscribe, are responsible in no small degree for this creditable result. Now that everybody understands what such a campaign means, Glendale should make as fine a showing on the Red Cross Drive which will begin May 20th and continue for one week.

FISH SHORTAGE DELAYS MAILS

The Post Office Department has authorized the following:

Shortage of fish is interfering with the mail in Alaska. On account of their scarcity, the motive power by which the mail is carried in that cold territory is curtailed. An abundance of fish is essential to the prompt delivery across the region of ice and snow, and a necessary supply is not to be had.

The mail carrier out from Anchorage, Alaska, wrote to the department under the date of March 25, 1918:

"Your letter of February 27, 1918, is at hand, and I notice the late arrivals of mail as indicated in same. The whole trouble is on account of my dogs. I was unable, and still am, to get fish for them as it is not to be obtained in the country. The dogs I use on this mail are wolf dogs that have been worked on fish all their lives. It is almost impossible to change from a fish diet to cooked feed and work them. I have done the best I could to keep this mail moving and have had to stop and rest my dogs several times while the mail was in transit as they would not stand it. * * * All of the late mails were caused on that account."

HELP THE WAR DEPARTMENT OF OUR GOVERNMENT

By direction of the War Department the American Protective League is collecting for that Department to be used for "Intelligence" purposes, certain information with regard to German occupied territory in Europe.

The material desired may consist of photographs, drawings, descriptions of bridges and large public buildings, and panoramic photographs, and bird's-eye views of towns and localities in the territory occupied by the German force in France, Belgium, and Luxemburg and likewise in that portion of Germany lying west of a line drawn from Hamburg to Munich. All photographs and picture post cards and other illustrated matter from the territory above referred to should be carefully labeled and described in order to serve the purposes for which it is needed.

All loyal Americans are urged to co-operate with the government in this work, which is of the greatest importance, and supply all the above mentioned material they possess. It should be delivered as promptly as possible to the American Protective League, care of the State Council of Defense, 724 Phelan Bldg., San Francisco, California.

All material delivered to the American Protective League for the War Department should be as a gift to the government, as it will be impracticable to return it to the donors.

POOR FELLOW

He would still be alive if he had only kept to Booth's Better Coffee. Years ago we used to hail him with, "Hello, Jack, how are you?" but the last time I saw him and greeted him with "Hello Jack," he said, "My name is Mister now, because I own a ranch." Poor fellow, he got rich, and pride was his downfall. It was like this: He went down town one day to get one pound of 40c coffee with a 15c taste and value. Well, it finished him off. The poor fellow is dead now. The doctor said the disease was "Chicoryicumpuff." It's something new, so medical men say. It's brought on by drinking poor coffee. Doctors say so long as you can drink Booth's Better Coffee you will be all right, but as soon as you can't it will be a bad job.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Silvius are moving from 613 Central avenue to 509 Park avenue.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Linden of 421 Isabel street, Glendale, Cal., May 16th, 1918, a twelve-pound son.

Mrs. A. L. Kilgore of 208 Arden avenue is having the great pleasure of entertaining her mother, Mrs. J. G. French, who has just come from San Francisco, where she has been spending several months.

Mrs. R. E. Chase explains that her little daughter Shirley has never made any patriotic speeches outside of Glendale, the statement in Thursday's paper being an error in that regard.

Mr. Jones who directs the fine band which furnishes the music at the Glendale Sanitarium is working for 100 per cent membership for the Red Cross and expects to realize his hopes. He has recently turned in the names of 75 new members whom he has enrolled.

Mrs. D. E. Johnston of 1446 Hawthorne street will chaperone a picnic party which will have supper and spend Friday evening at Brookside Park. The group will include Martha Ray, Marcella Miller, Christina Ferris, Mildred Whitaker, Harold Russell, Guy Richards and Marshal Pearson.

S. W. Shaull of 431 San Fernando boulevard, whose business has kept him in Detroit and other eastern cities most of the year, is at home and hopes to be able to remain long enough to get his local affairs straightened out, but is liable to be summoned any day to Michigan to look after litigation in which he is interested.

A party of young people of the local Epworth League enjoyed a picnic Tuesday evening at Brookside Park. Fried chicken featured the refreshments which were followed by a tennis game, the players returning by moonlight. In the party were Bernice and Ruth Wood, Jennie and Mrs. Lacey, Verne Nyman and Elwood Ingledue.

Mrs. A. J. McCollum, who was taken to the Glendale Sanitarium following the tragic death of her husband and daughter, is being carefully cared for by physicians and nurses and is not well enough to be seen by her friends, though the reports they give of her condition are encouraging. No arrangements have yet been made for funeral services over the bodies of Mr. McCollum and his daughter. They will be delayed until relatives arrive from the east.

Some of the patriotic little pupils of Columbus avenue school have organized a club and elected a corps of officers. It had a membership of six to start with but is bigger now. Miss Eula Linkogel, ten years old, is president. Its object is to raise money for the Red Cross, and its members go out and collect penny subscriptions and secure money in other ways for the cause. They are planning to make a quilt to be sold and also to give a play. Several dollars have been turned in by them.

Mrs. Harry Greenwalt reports that inasmuch as there has been a strong and persistent demand for a repetition of the Cranford Musicale, recently given as a Red Cross benefit by the Music Section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, the section has agreed to give it again and June 1st at 8 p. m. is the date set. It will take place as before in the High School Auditorium. The proceeds to date from the first performance, over and above all expenses, are $130, which has been turned in to the local Chapter, and it seems probable that as much more will be realized next time.

Mrs. Mattison B. Jones is a busy lady. She has undertaken to do all it is possible for her to accomplish in awakening the clubs of the District Federation, of which she is president, to the necessity of making all of their members working members for the Red Cross. In nearly all organizations a few do most of the work. The clubs are trying to reform the slackers and make honest to goodness patriots of them all. Mrs. Jones is booked to speak at Burbank Tuesday, Alhambra Wednesday, to conduct the Presidents' Conference on Thursday, and attend the Sierra Madre benefit for Furlough Homes on Saturday.

Mrs. Tiny Hammond of 110 East Cypress avenue reports that her aunts, Mrs. Sarah Renshaw and Mrs. Delia Coffman are returning to their home in Ft. Scott next Saturday. Mrs. Renshaw has been here for the winter. Mrs. Coffman has spent five years here in the home of her sister, Mrs. Martha Johnson, on Glendale avenue. Her friends predict that she has become so much of a Californian that she will not be happy and will probably return here when the snow begins to fly there. Mrs. Hammond is trying to do her bit by cultivating a fine garden, the best she has ever had. She states that everybody on the street is engaged in the same kind of food production.

Mrs. Jesse Joseph of 1431 West First street is having a very pleasant festival this week entertaining her son Ensign F. A. Conrad, recently arrived from Mare Island, who has been in the Naval Reserve and who has just received his commission. He has been assigned to San Diego as instructor. His wife and baby, who are likewise guests of Mrs. Joseph this week, will also go to San Diego. Mrs. Joseph is very happy to have them located where it will be possible for her to see them all frequently. Her youngest son, who is just about completing eight years' service in Chinese waters, is expected home next month, when she is to have a family reunion. Her third son is in the aviation service and is now at Berkeley. Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Blackburn are also with her this week.

ENTERTAINED SOLDIERS

Mrs. Charles Grist carried out her intention to visit the government rifle range Thursday afternoon and while there delegated one of the soldiers to invite eight or ten of his comrades to come with him to spend the evening in the Grist home. They came and had a most delightful social evening with young ladies whom Mrs. Grist invited to help entertain them, Mrs. Grist and her friend Mrs. Swinborne being the chaperones of the party. They had music, made candy and enjoyed themselves in other ways. Mrs. Grist declares she never entertained a nicer bunch of boys. Mrs. Malcolm McLaren of Jackson street had planned to entertain come of the soldiers tonight, but their recall to San Pedro has cancelled all invitations.

TO HIS MOTHER

The following extract from a letter received by Mrs. Johanna E. Edwards of 1222 Milford St. from her son, Sergt. Clarence L. Edwards, of Company 11, Coast Artillery, Fort MacArthur, will be of interest and inspiration to many other mothers:

"One more thing, Mother: For my sake be a soldier. Be a help to other mothers and teach them how to rejoice over the fact that they raised a boy who was able to go 'over there.' Hold your head high and smile, Mother, for you are the hero. You have been my 'commanding officer' for nearly 30 years and have trained me to be fit for anything that comes. So keep a heavy lock on the 'water work' and smile, smile, smile."

INTERMEDIATE NOTES

THE BROADWAY P.-T. A.

On Thursday, May 16th, the closing program of the Association as given below was furnished by both present and former pupils of the school, assisted by Miss Marguerite Wetherby, director of music in Glendale grammar schools, and Mrs. Helen Salisbury, kindergarten teacher at Broadway school. Every number was splendid and especially appreciated were the four-minute speeches by the pupils.

Piano Solo, Narcissus (Nevin)—Ruth Morton.

Vocal Solo, (a) A May Morning (L. Denva), (b) There Is a Girl Who Is Knitting for You" (Florence Nixcon)—Miss Marion Addison.

Reading by Mrs. Helen Salisbury.

Violin Solo, (a) Rondino (Kreisler), (b) A Moment Musical (Schubert)—Miss Faith Tarling.

Four-Minute Speeches by: (a) Shirley Chase, (b) Louise Daugherty, (c) Ruth Morton, (d) Vesta Morrow, (e) Norman Kellar.

Vocal Solo, (a) Happy Day (Wilfred Sanderson), (b) If No One Ever Marries Me (Lehman)—Miss Wetherby.

Following the program reports of the work for the year were given by the different departments. These reports showed the entire association an active and earnest organization; the war work of the pupils and teachers proved a great surprise and pleasure to the mothers present. The children's spirit of loyalty to our government and their desire to help our Allies is the result of the earnest, faithful work of their teachers, and the members of the Broadway P.-T. A. congratulated them on the showing made. The complete report of war relief work done in the school will be made public at the close of school.

Following the program and reports, these officers were elected for next year:

President, Mrs. Lydia M. Kulp.
Vice-President, Mrs. T. W. Preston.
Secretary, Miss Matilda Speik.
Treasurer, Mrs. M. O. Ryan.
Historian, Mrs. H. H. Jepsón.

In appreciation of her four years' work as president of the association, Mrs. Anderssen was then presented with a shopping bag which she accepted lovingly as it was given. The association adjourned to meet with the Federation at their June picnic.

BOWLING GAME

The following particulars about the bowling game Wednesday evening, May 15th, at the Elks' Club House, when the Macks were pitted against the Viohls, will be of interest. The try-out contest is drawing to a close and the players who are to represent the club in the coming tournament in which all of the lodges of Southern California or perhaps the entire State will participate, will soon be selected. It is expected that the date and place of the opening of the tournament will soon be announced.

DR. HARROWER IN ACCIDENT

Thursday afternoon as Dr. Henry R. Harrower was leaving an elevator in the Los Angeles Investment building, Los Angeles, its heavy door shot forward, crushing him against the metal frame and giving him a great jolt and severe nervous shock. The accident has temporarily incapacitated him from carrying on the work of his own business and profession and the tasks assigned him in connection with the Red Cross War Fund Campaign. He and Mrs. Harrower are leaving this (Friday) afternoon for some quiet place where the doctor can relax for a few days and "pull himself together."

ANNOUNCING

The man who says it can't be done is often interrupted by somebody doing it.

PATRIOTIC CONCERT

As already announced, the star number on the patriotic concert which is to be given Monday evening, May 20th, in the High School auditorium as a joint benefit for the British Ambulance Society and the Red Cross Chapter of this city, will be the choruses by the Men's Glee Club of the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company, in which are twelve to sixteen fine voices under the leadership of Horatio Cogswell. Mr. Cogswell is one of the most popular baritones of Southern California and is a teacher in the College of Music at the University of Southern California. He is leading six different choruses which, through his instrumentality, have been combined and given joint concerts to packed houses in twenty-five different places this season.

The members of the Glee Club are L. W. Morgan, Carl E. Jacobsen, Walter N. Allen, E. M. Young, Earl Cheney, L. J. Cooper, C. H. Kinsey, Harry V. Steger, William Monahan, Robert A. Brown, R. C. Arnold, Leo J. Smith, J. C. Westervelt, Claude A. Wayne.

ENCAMPMENT FOR WORK

At a meeting held in Hollywood last week, a plan to organize boys of the High School as a working reserve at the summer camp at Hemet was set forth by Mr. Foley. The proposition was briefly this, as described by the "Hollywood Citizen":

Abut one hundred and fifty students are to go to Hemet and encamp. The boys will get their work as in the past, but will live in one huge camp, a Hollywood "family," as it were. Mr. Foley's idea is that the boys are to "chip in" to hire cooks, buy food, etc., thus having a commissary department somewhat similar to that at Arcadia. He hints of good times after the day's work (as long as we don't damage the community permanently).

THE PRICE OF A BABY'S LIFE

What's the worth of one baby's life?

The time has come when you must put a money value on it.

So much Red Cross money available, so many babies restored.

A little less Red Cross money available, so many babies lost by default.

It's as plain as that.

When you made that first Red Cross investment you had a fairly clear idea that there was plenty to be done and that the Red Cross would make every dollar of money and every minute of time count.

But have you now a clear picture of what price somebody will have to pay for one delayed dollar or a hundred dollars withheld?

You can't read a casual page of Red Cross reports from anywhere "over there" without endangering the coolness of your decision as to "how much."

Suppose you had found "another use" for your Red Cross money a while ago and a corresponding part of the piece of work described below went undone:

"Gas bombs were being used. 750 children suddenly thrust upon the Prefect's hand. Twenty-one of the children were infants under one year, and the remainder were under eight years—herded together in an old barracks, dirty, practically unfurnished, and with no sanitary appliances. Sick children were crowded in with the well, and skin disease and vermin abounded. Within two days the Red Cross workers had cleaned all the children, provided new barracks, provided medical care and nurses for the babies, secured suitable food and classified all the refugees to prevent the separation of members of the same family."

Was that money well spent?

Were those babies worth while? Well, how much were they worth per baby?

They are the future of France—the hope and pledge of civilization. We are in their debt for what their fathers and mothers have paid already—in hunger, in cold, in mutilation, in slavery.

We shall pay up, too. Your first installment was there in time—now how much?
